utilizing a web-based platform and

We were in touch with the airline's major creditors before the judge's signature was dry on the Chapter 11 first-day order. Our ability to respond immediately prevented interruptions in service, as we helped the airline maintain relationships of trust with thousands of critical vendors.

a highly experienced team of bankruptcy experts,

Our Web-based case-management system kept creditors, employees, investors and customers—and their accountants and lawyers—on board with a steady stream of information broadcast electronically and by hard copy. As the court-approved administrator and claims agent, Epiq gathered and compiled all the airline's liabilities, while processing all creditors' claims.

key parties stayed informed and met deadlines

Through every stage, we managed thousands of claim amendments, withdrawals and expungements. Our work enabled bankruptcy counsel to meet legal requirements and the court's deadlines. Meanwhile, our full-service approach kept bankruptcy tasks running smoothly, so the executive team and its advisors could spend more time flying the carrier out of Chapter 11.
